LKTYP gearing-up for Fall Drama School Session Sign up now for the most fun your child can have while gaining invaluable life skills!

Toronto, ON - The purpose behind everything Lorraine Kimsa Theatre for Young People does is to make a positive contribution to the emotional, intellectual and social development of the young people who attend their plays and take part in their many programs. Foremost among these educational programs is LKTYP's year-round Drama School. Classes are offered at three convenient locations -- Etobicoke, Downtown Toronto and North York. Fall classes are set to begin on September 18, 25 and 26, respectively.

LKTYP's Drama School, now in its 41st year, offers participants not only a great deal of fun but also the chance to acquire many skills – such as collaboration, problem-solving, self-confidence and creativity – that can be applied for the rest of their lives.

Professional drama instructors lead classes that are imaginative, fun and educational in a creative environment. Each session is unique and teaches new presentation skills. Students explore essential drama techniques through the Fall, Winter and Spring sessions, and new students are welcome throughout the year. Participants in the Spring session focus on creating a final presentation for the Mainstage where friends and family attend to cheer them on.

In a recent Drama School survey, 81% of parents said their child's self-confidence was increased by the program; 71% said that the quality of the company's teaching was the highlight of the program -- and most everyone said they made wonderful friends and had great FUN!

THERE ARE FOUR THINGS THAT ARE CENTRAL TO LKTYP'S DRAMA SCHOOL PHILOSOPHY:

- the participation of all young people is based on their interest, not talent
- a commitment to provide professionally-qualified and innovative instructors who take the individual development of every young participant seriously
- the removal of barriers to participation through a flexible scholarship program
- a commitment to provide arts education that is connected to LKTYP's high-quality professional theatre practice.

Enhance the intellectual, emotional and social development of the young people in your life and provide them with enormous fun too!
