Lorraine Kimsa Theatre for Young People welcomes Montreal's DynamO Théâtre back to the Mainstage with brand new work!

As the first production of their 2008-2009 season, Lorraine Kimsa Theatre for Young People is pleased to present Ghosts and Ladders (L'Envol de l'ange) by Montreal's DynamO Theatre in Co-production with LKTYP. This dynamic new work, by Kim Selody in collaboration with Jacqueline Gosselin, will be presented on the Mainstage from September 29 to October 11, 2008.

Thrill to the acrobatic movement of the company that brought you me me me... and Lili as they weave a tale of daring, risk, and mystery through a maze of stepladders. Follow brothers Gabriel, Marty and Jack as they play near the forbidden railway tracks and witness young Gabriel, as he conquers his fears with the help of a mysterious little girl...

"This project began with Jackie [Gosselin] and me sharing stories of our family. There was much we did not know. So much had been kept from us as children. One thing was the feeling of being a bit of an outcast in our own family. This led to the story of The Ugly Duckling. We began to ask questions. What happens when secrets are kept from the child? How will the secret come out? This creation has helped that to happen and, as a result, has been very rewarding for me; as an artist, as a parent and as a grown-up child" - Kim Selody.

Directed by Jacqueline Gosselin and featuring Daniel Desparois, Frédéric Nadeau and Yves Simard.

Set design (concept): Jacqueline Gosselin; Visual Consultant and Costume Designer: Pierre-Étienne Locas; Composer: Cathy Nosaty; Lighting: Luc Prairie; Accordionist: Larissa Corriveau.
