LKTYP welcomes Red Sky Performance with compelling theatre dance piece *Raven Stole the Sun

Lorraine Kimsa Theatre For Young People is proud to present Raven Stole the Sun, a Red Sky Performance production, directed by Aboriginal wunderkind Sandra Laronde. The play will be presented in the Studio October 9 to 21.

Red Sky takes a traditional story to new heights through a compelling theatre dance piece for family audiences. Raven Stole the Sun is a delightful tale about how the sun, moon, and stars came to hold their positions in the sky. It is an authentic and thoroughly engaging introduction to an Aboriginal view of the earth. At once accomplished and unpretentious, Raven Stole the Sun beautifully blends dance, music, and humour to tell its whimsical story.

"The fun, and the beauty, of this high-spirited performance...what sets the whole show apart is, in a word, joy" – Edmonton Journal

The cast features Jonathan Fisher, Sandra Laronde and Carlos Rivera.

The creative team includes Composer Donald Quan, Lighting Designer Steve Lucas, Set and Costume Designer Cheryl Lalonde and Stage Manager Lisa Russell.

About Red Sky Performance: Red Sky has enjoyed a meteoric rise to international attention for its original creations. Founded in 2000 by Artistic Director Sandra Laronde, Red Sky is a dynamic company shaping contemporary Aboriginal performance in theatre, dance and music. Red Sky creates and produces original works for adult and family audiences, and explores the artistic landscape where world Indigenous cultures merge. Red Sky seeks to nourish and strengthen the health, creativity and innovation of First Nations, world Indigenous, culturally diverse and mainstream communities.
