Lorraine Kimsa Theatre for Young People presents
Andy Massingham
in his Dora Award-winning performance of Rough House
Produced by Nightswimming

LKTYP is proud to present Andy Massingham's *Rough House, a roller coaster ride of mime, slapstick and extreme physicality! Andy Massingham uses his tremendous physical talents to tell a story of falling down and rising up again. An extraordinary duet for actor and lighting designer Rough House is suitable for all ages. It will be presented on the Mainstage from April 8 to 20.

Rough House exemplifies physical theatre at its very best. In his Dora Award-winning performance, Andy Massingham takes the audience into a world of discovery as one man explores his environment, and then attempts to control and master it, often resulting in uproarious consequences. Rough House is a one-of-a-kind theatrical experience. There is only one character, one act, and the story is told entirely through superlative movement and lighting technique.

Brian Quirt of Nightswimming directs this outstanding one-man show. Designed by Rebecca Picherack and Michelle Ramsay. Stage managed by Kathryn Westoll.

"The last moments, a magical shadow ride for chair, lightbulb and man, capture the cleverness of the show in miniature, leaving audiences absolutely still with wonder."
